Cash / bank single entry. Bank ledger on top, then one row per receipt (Cr) or payment (Dr) with discount, cheque no. and narration; totals below. Demo data, party names hidden.

What Bharat Single Entry does

Fast single entry

Cash or bank ledger at the top, then one row per entry: Cr = receipt, Dr = payment, party, amount, discount, narration. Enter moves cell to cell.

Bill-by-bill adjustment

For a bill-by-bill party a window lists its pending bills to adjust, with automatic oldest-first fill.

Contra too

With a bank ledger at the top and cash as the party, the row is saved as a contra entry.

Sales entry with GST (F7)

Invoice date, number and party; sale type picked from the party's GST number; columns for 18%, 5%, 0% and more that you switch on or off.

Sales entry with GST (F7). Invoice date, party and value per GST rate, GST inclusive or extra; sale type, basic, CGST / SGST / IGST and total are worked out. Demo data, names and GSTINs hidden.

Bank import. Bank statement lines with deposit / withdrawal; pick the party once and save each line as a receipt or payment. Demo data, names hidden.

More features

Tax-inclusive or taxable

Type the final amount and it splits into basic + CGST / SGST, or type the taxable value and tax is added.

Excel friendly

Paste rows from Excel, download the blank format, or import a file, check and save.

HSN items made once

Optional HSN column creates a standard item like 'GOODS 18% 8570' once and reuses it, no duplicates.

Nothing lost

Rows that fail to save stay in a pending list you can recall, so nothing is typed twice. Every saved voucher is backed up.

How it works

1

Install

Close BUSY and run the Setup; it adds Bharat Single Entry to BUSY's Add-Ons menu.

2

Open from BUSY

Add-Ons menu; the open company and year are used.

3

Type rows

Party, amount, discount, narration; Enter moves on.

4

F2 to save

Every row is saved into BUSY as its own voucher.

Questions

How is each entry saved in BUSY?

As a regular BUSY voucher, using BUSY's own voucher format, so BUSY recalculates balances itself.

Is there a version for composition dealers?

Yes: Bharat Single Entry Composition, a separate Setup with composition sales and purchase screens.

Does it work on a LAN?

Yes, with both BUSY Access and SQL Server companies, on every PC that runs BUSY.

Voucher numbers?

Auto (continuing from BUSY) or manual, your choice.
